cattle, calves, sheep, swine, or goats, unless the same shall have been slaughtered in an official establishment under the supervision of a United States Government inspector, in accordance with the regulations relating to the inspection of meat, as prescribed by the Department of Agriculture of the United States, or under inspection recognized and accepted by the said Department of Agriculture of the United States, or under the supervision of the health commissioner, or a meat inspector of the city of Los Angeles, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance."

Slaughterhouses—Issuance and Suspension of Permits. (Ord. 26,768 N. S., Jan. 21, 1913.)

SECTION 1. That section 3 of ordinance No. 24,982 (new series), entitled "An ordinance regulating slaughterhouses, the slaughtering of animals for food, and the sale of meats," approved May 1, 1912, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 3. Any person, firm, or corporation desiring to slaughter any of the animals mentioned in sections 1 and 2 hereof for use for food purposes in the city of Los Angeles, shall, before engaging in such business, make application in writing to the health commissioner of the city of Los Angeles for a permit so to do, which application shall be signed by the person, firm, or corporation making the same and shall specify the location of the house or place where it is proposed to slaughter such animals. Upon the filing of such application the health commissioner, or an inspector designated by him, shall inspect said slaughterhouse, and if the same shall be found to comply with the provisions of this ordinance relative to the construction and equipment of slaughterhouses, he shall issue the permit applied for and cause a record thereof to be kept in the health department: Provided, however, That such permit shall be granted only on the express condition that the same shall be subject to suspension for a period not exceeding six months by the said health commissioner in his discretion, upon proof to the satisfaction of said health commissioner of a violation by the holder thereof, or his servant, employee or agent, of any of the provisions of this ordinance, or of any rule of the health department relating to the inspection and sanitary condition of slaughter houses.

"No such permit shall be suspended until after a hearing shall have been had by the health commissioner, notice of which hearing shall be given in writing and served at least three days prior to the date of hearing upon the holder of such permit or upon his or its manager or agent. Such notice shall state the ground of complaint against the holder of such permit and shall also state the time when and place where such hearing will be had. Such notice shall be served upon the holder of such permit by delivering the same to such person, firm, or corporation, or to his or its manager or agent, or to any person of suitable age and discretion in charge of or employed in the place of business of such person, firm, or corporation; or if such person has no place of business, then at his place of residence; or by leaving such notice at the place of residence of such person with some person of suitable age and discretion. If the holder of such permit can not be found and service of such notice can not be made upon him or it in the manner herein provided, then a copy of such notice shall be mailed, postage fully prepaid, addressed to such holder of such permit at such place of business or residence at least three days prior to the date of such hearing: Provided, however, That the health commissioner shall have power and he is hereby authorized to suspend any such permit at any time when he shall ascertain that any provision of this ordinance or any such rule of the health department is being violated by the holder of such permit, or his servant, employee, or agent.

"If any such permit shall be suspended by the health commissioner, it shall be unlawful, during the period of such suspension, for the holder of such permit to slaughter any cattle, calves, sheep, swine, or goats in any slaughterhouse designated in such suspended permit for use for food purposes in said city of Los Angeles.

"Every such permit shall be good until the same is suspended as provided by this ordinance, or until the holder of such permit changes the location of his place of business, or conveys or otherwise disposes of the same.

"Nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any person, firm, or corporation to obtain a permit under the provisions of this ordinance if such person, firm, or corporation has, prior to the adoption of this ordinance, obtained a permit under the provisions of ordinance No. 14,351 (new series), and such permit has not been revoked or suspended and a new permit is not specifically required to be obtained under the provisions of this ordinance."

Swine—Keeping of. (Ord. 27,881 N. S., July 9, 1913.)

SECTION 1. That section 7 of ordinance No. 23,660 (new series), entitled "An ordinance regulating the keeping of cows and other animals within certain limits of the city of Los Angeles," approved November 3, 1911, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 7. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to keep, or to cause or permit to be kept, any swine upon any premises in the city of Los Angeles unless such premises shall be comprised of an area of 1 acre or more: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to those certain districts set apart as slaughterhouse districts as set forth in ordinance No. 10,909 (new series), and to that portion of the city of Los Angeles lying south of Manchester Avenue. Every person, firm, or corporation may keep one additional swine for each additional acre owned or controlled by such person, firm, or corporation: Provided, however, That the number of swine that shall be kept upon any premises in said city shall not exceed five in number. No swine shall be kept upon any premises in said city within a distance of 100 feet of any public building, church, school, or dwelling. Every pen constructed or intended to be constructed and in which swine are kept is hereby required to be floored with cement or concrete, or plank of not less than 2 inches in thickness. All floor joints shall be tightly calked and filled with tar or asphaltum, and every such cement, concrete, or plank flooring is hereby required to be so placed and connected as to be properly and easily drained, and the same shall be drained, into some accepted sewer or cesspool. The owner, lessee, or person, firm, or corporation having charge of or in control of any such pen is hereby required to keep any such pen in a cleanly and sanitary manner and condition."

Fertilizer Factories—Establishment and Maintenance—Permit Required. (Ord. 28,411 N. S., Oct. 6, 1913.)

SECTION 1. That section 66 of ordinance No. 24,979 (new series), entitled "An ordinance providing health, sanitary, and quarantine regulations," approved May 1, 1912, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 66. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to establish, conduct, maintain, or operate, or to cause or permit to be established, conducted, maintained, or operated, within the city of Los Angeles any fertilizer factory: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to any fertilizer factory in operation upon the date of the passage of this ordinance: And provided further, That the health commissioner may issue a permit, for a period not exceeding six months, to any person, firm, or corporation to maintain and operate, for experimental purposes, in any industrial district, a mechanical drier for producing chemical fertilizer. Any such permit may be revoked in the discretion of the health commissioner.

"A fertilizer factory, within the meaning of this section, is hereby declared to be a factory or place where fertilizer, fertilizing material, or any ingredient used in the preparation of fertilizer is manufactured, produced, or prepared, in whole or in part, from offal or refuse or from animal or vegetable matters."
